The Tundra Women’s Coalition (TWC), is a nonprofit organization serving victims of family and sexual violence through emergency shelter, legal advocacy, outreach, violence prevention program and a regional children’s advocacy center. TWC is requesting partnership with the City to improve transportation services for transitional housing residents through an annual payment of up $22,687.50 to the Bethel Transit System.

The total funding for this project is $68,062.50, which will allow for a three-year partnership agreement through the MOU.
